

NC-CEBU1213 Module Fourteen Summary

The following is a summary of some of the key points studied in this module. Upon completion of this module, the student will apply with confidence to any employment that they are interested in. Using the skills that this course has offered, a resume and cover letter prepared with only the most positive characteristics and skills will allow the student to continue on with their job search with confidence.